

I am opposed to the FCC passing less restrictive measures on telemarketers. The industry is basically a nuisance and invasion of privacy. I have taken great measures to prevent their intrusion in my home--these include anonymous call block, caller ID, registering with the AG, and reporting unwanted callers. Please allow the state of Indiana to regulate telemarketers without less restrictive federal laws.